

I ran the 10 miler in San Antonio at Mc Allister Park. This is one of the better advertised trail runs in Texas. I first ran it in 2004 and after skipping it in 2009 and 2010 I revisited the twisty, slightly rocky, dirt packed, quick up and down trail on March 12th. It is one of the Trail Runner magazine's series races (a 15K in Burnet this April is also on the list).

Our area was well represented. Alissa Inman won Female overall 10M in 1:13 and Jessica Layton was 3rd in her age group. Greg Brant, Kevin Gossett, and Juan Mejis also burned up the 10M course. There were about 350 in the 10 mile race.

Sara Ahlers braved the 50K along with 100 other enduros.

SARR and Bill Gardner do a great job with markings, parking and fajitas.
